Meet Valerie

Award-Winning Cabaret Artist, Singer, Entertainer, Stage Actress

Valerie's one-woman shows have been defined as "...a seamless venture of magic in the making." Her voice and showmanship have been critically acclaimed for presenting interesting and exciting music matched by "a beautiful voice, the kind most musical theatre wanna-bees aspire to... and an engaging demeanor most society hostesses would give their eye tooth for."

She continues to bring her popular cabaret and concert series to many venues throughout NYC, the Hamptons, East Coast and Florida some of which include: Guild Hall, Laurie Beechman Theatre, The Metropolitan Room, The Triad, Judy's, Tatou, Don't Tell Mama, The Duplex, the Tunnel, Avram Theatre, Southampton Arts Center, The Suffolk Theater, Caramoor Center for the Arts, Mohonk Mountain House, Aventura Arts & Cultural Center (FL), The Broward Center, Carroll Arts Center (MD), and Odette's and Frangelica's (PA), to name a few.

The New York Times said

"Ms. diLorenzo walked with the acting honors of the evening."

The Baltimore Sun Times headline read

"Strong Mama Rose Propels Gypsy."

The Morning Call called "Ms.

diLorenzo's performance as Nancy a wonder", and claimed her "wonderfully comic as the slatternly Miss Hannigan in Annie...with a showstopping version of Little Girls."

FUN FACT Valerie sang the National Anthem for the NY Mets for over 15 seasons!

Valerie is also a proud card-carrying member of the Actors Equity Association.

Some of her favorite theatrical credits include: Rose, "Gypsy", Mrs. Johnstone, "Bloodbrothers", Sheila, "A Chorus Line", Nancy, "Oliver!", Miss Hannigan, "Annie", Stella Deems, "Follies", Marta, "Company", Miss Mona, "The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas", Sweet Sue, "Sugar", Bunny, "The House of Blue Leaves", The Courtesan, "The Comedy of Errors" and Belinda, "Noises Off."

Valerie is also the Founder and Curator of Standard Fair™, which produces concerts and special performing arts events dedicated to keeping the Great American Songbook Alive, including her acclaimed one-woman show, Ladies of Liberty™, celebrating the Suffrage Centennial and History of Women's Rights.

Media Quotes

BACKSTAGE

“Valerie diLorenzo gives an enlivening no-nonsense, performance and walks off with the honors of the evening.”

The New York Times

“The evening’s asset is singer Valerie diLorenzo...with a robust voice, presence and a life-embracing spirit, when she sings a song, it has done been sung..”

“Deserving of a big hand is Valerie diLorenzo, glowing and on the same page from the past... knows how to sell a song and bring a whole lot of smiles.”

CABARETSCENES

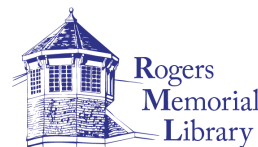

“From the opening scene to the final curtain call, the audience was mesmerized by NY actress, Valerie diLorenzo, who truly shines ... When she takes the stage, she takes the stage. Her presence captivates the audience and she adds warmth and passion to her role... a compelling theatre experience.”

THE BALTIMORE SUN

“The lead and absolute standout performer of the show, Valerie diLorenzo performs with such poise and professionalism...plus is a powerhouse singer.”

The Southampton Press

“LADIES OF LIBERTY, was one of the most remarkable events – of any kind – that I have ever attended...A brilliant one-woman performance ...I can think of no one who has done it better or more effectively than Ms. diLorenzo. The audience literally went wild.”
